Headline:
Remaining unsettled this week with further showers at times.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers and any remaining thunderstorms mostly dying out, but perhaps persisting over northern hills for a time. Turning chilly with long clear spells developing as winds slowly ease after midnight allowing a rural ground frost in places. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cool, dry start with some sunshine. Clouding over by mid-morning with scattered heavy showers developing. These merging to longer spells of rain. Chance of thunder. Drier later in south. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Often sunny with scattered showers developing each day, these sometimes heavy and prolonged, especially Thursday, and perhaps thundery. Feeling pleasant in sunnier weather. Rather cool each night.
